

South Sudan Opposition Movements

“SSNDA, R-SPLM, SSUF/A”

Declaration of Principles

“Launching the New Vision of Hope and Transformation in South Sudan”

We, Representatives of the South Sudan National Democratic Alliance (SSNDA), the Real Sudan People’s Liberation Movement (R-SPLM), and South Sudan United Front/Army (SSUF/A), hereinafter referred to as the “united South Sudan Opposition Movements”.

Cognizant of the fact that the unity of the people of South Sudan is of paramount importance to bringing a new vision and hope for our country;

Further cognizant of the need to unify and to consolidate the South Sudan Opposition Movements to work collectively to resolve the grave political, social and economic crisis facing our country;

Striving to alleviate the suffering of our people through the establishment of a peaceful and stable democratic state that is based on the rule of law;

Concerned by the continued human suffering and destitution in the Republic of South Sudan due to the avoidable man-made, devastating civil war;

Fully aware of the dire need for sustainable human security and a just peace in South Sudan;

Believing that the crisis in South Sudan is political in nature; thus, requires a political solution, and that no military solution can achieve a lasting peace, stability and establishment of a new dawn of democratic dispensation;

Mindful that the interests of the people of South Sudan shall be above all personal, ethnic and political ambitions;

Committed to transforming South Sudan into a new republic that is anchored in strong and viable institutions.

Esunday